Welcome to the team!

Are you

- a loyal and open-minded member of staff who is
- innovative and creative
- able to work under pressure, effective, capable

- ... and highly motivated?

You are? Then we'd love to receive a detailed application from you!

If you think like an entrepreneur, work professionally and are also prepared to look beyond the bounds of your own specialist area, then you've come to the right place. We promote and support our employees in developing their skills and their capacity for taking personal responsibility. And we'd like to create an environment in which you too can continuously upgrade your skills and develop both professionally and as an individual.

We grow the expertise and skills of our employees in response to the demands of the market.
